

COPPER-MAX

A chelated Copper and Zinc syringe for convenient supplementation

CONTAINS

Chelated Copper – required for the healthy development and integrity of connective tissue as well as being required for bone development

Zinc – involved in protein and carbohydrate synthesis. Important for the integrity of the skin

Biotin – to support healthy hoof horn growth

USES

Can be used in breeding or for performance horses as an alternative to daily supplementation

Ideal for horses kept at pasture

SUITABLE FOR

All horses including young stock

